a. The Broker owes me securities	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. I owe the Broker securities	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

c. If yes to either, please list below:

I'm basing my claim on the account listed above in the name of my brother, David Moskowitz through which I deposited $100,000 to BIMS directly over the past 2 years - i.e. 2008. None of which was withdrawn by me.

Date of Transaction (trade date)	Name of Security	Number of Shares or Face Amount of Bonds	The Broker Owes Me (Long)	I Owe the Broker (Short)
The last account statement was filed by David Moskowitz in his claim because at the time I didn't believe I had standing as a customer, even the Madoff encouraged arrangements of this kind. I've since learned that under the law I should have status. I will forward proof of the deposits.

Proper documentation can speed the review, allowance and satisfaction of your claim and shorten the time required to deliver your securities and cash to you. Please enclose, if possible, copies of your last account statement and purchase or sale confirmations and checks which relate to the securities or cash you claim, and any other documentation, such as correspondence, which you believe will be of assistance in processing your claim. In particular, you should provide all documentation (such as cancelled checks, receipts from the Debtor, proof of wire transfers, etc.) of your deposits of cash or securities with the Debtor from as far back as you have documentation. You should also provide all documentation or information regarding any withdrawals you have ever made or payments received from the Debtor.

Sub-sequently is enough

Please explain any differences between the securities or cash claimed and the cash balance and securities positions on your last account statement. If, at any time, you complained in writing about the handling of your account to any person or entity or regulatory authority, and the complaint relates to the cash and/or securities that you are now seeking, please be sure to provide with your claim copies of the complaint and all related correspondence, as well as copies of any replies that you received.
